

COACHING COMMUNIQUE

No. 4 for 2010

* Diaries at the READY ****

The combined RNSWBA & NSWWBA Coaching Committee is staging a Coach State Conference at

Yamba BC on Wednesday 10th November 2010: 9.00am – 5.00 pm

This professionally planned gala event will feature guest speakers Steve Glasson and Karen Murphy. As well as Interactive Discussion Panels on a variety of coaching issues, latest information on Bowls Australia coaching directions, there will be the opportunity for participants to be included in a challenging game of bowls with Steve and Karen along with their involvement in skills development routines. Supporting sponsors will have bowls equipment available to try and/or purchase.

Yamba is a superb location on NSW's north coast. So, men and women coaches, reserve a spot in your calendar for this outstanding occasion. Full details and registration forms will be available in forthcoming editions of BowlsNSW & BowlsNews. Don't miss out.

Taree West was the venue for a highly successful Club Coach Course. The informative and interactive activities brought about such responses from the participants as:

"Thoroughly enjoyed the 2 days ; It has been a positive learning experience; The course was a surprise: I will encourage anyone thinking of doing the course to give it a go."

Applications for Club Coach courses have been received from Zones that include 1, 4, 5, 7, 9, 10, 11, 12 & 15. If you are from these Zones and are considering to become a coach, download the application forms from the websites and post it off to the appropriate Associations as soon as possible. Now is the time to register.

★★★★ All Coaching Courses are non-gender based and are open to both men and ladies ★★★★★
